(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

The abandonment was due to failure to timely file issue fee and publication fee. A copy of the Notice of Abandonment is enclosed as Exhibit A. Applicant submitted the issue fee and publication fee via facsimile on January 18, 2006. A copy of this submission is enclosed as Exhibit B. The docket clerk mistakenly sent this document to the previous facsimile number for acceptance of issue fees. The previous facsimile number had been coded into the facsimile machine for automatic transmittal. The docket clerk was not aware that a new facsimile number had been issued, therefore it was not coded into the machine. Although the fees were timely authorized and transmitted, they were not received by the Patent Office. It had been assumed that the documents were successfully transmitted until receipt of the Notice of Abandonment (Exhibit A).

This Notice is dated March 22, 2006, and this Petition is promptly and diligently filed within one month of the date of the Notice of Abandonment.
